

DIVISION 4 CANDIDATE PROFILE

Karen Kotylak

ACCLAIMED

Karen Kotylak and her husband, Darrell, reside on their acreage north of Pilot Butte. Karen has been a resident of Division 4 for 30 years and has served as a councillor for the RM of Edenwold for the past seven years.

Throughout her time in the community, Karen has been actively involved in supporting local families and organizations. Her community involvement includes serving on the Board of Directors for the Pilot Butte Preschool Division, coaching Storm Softball from the Squirt division through to Ladies League, and volunteering with the Pilot Butte Community Rodeo for over 20 years. Her longstanding commitment to these organizations reflects her dedication to community involvement and the importance of giving back.

Karen's professional background is primarily in finance. She spent 17 years with the Mercantile Bank of Canada before becoming a Branch Manager with the National Bank of Canada. After taking time away from the workforce to raise her children, Karen returned to work in 2016 and later worked at the Canada Post office in Pilot Butte.

With 30 years of experience living in Division 4 and seven years of municipal council experience, Karen brings a strong understanding of the community and the responsibilities of local government. Her financial background has also given her an appreciation for responsible budgeting, accountability, and careful decision-making.

As councillor, Karen believes in listening to residents, encouraging open communication, and ensuring the concerns of Division 4 are represented at Council. She values working collaboratively with fellow councillors while considering the needs of residents throughout the municipality.

Karen is committed to continuing to serve the residents of Division 4 with dedication, fairness, and a focus on the long-term interests of the RM of Edenwold.
