Getting Started

Welcome to the RM of Edenwold's Application Portal. This guide is intended to help you navigate the portal so that you can submit multiple types of applications including building permit, business license, and rezoning application online easily and efficiently.

Click the link below to access the Public Portal and get started:

Next you'll need to Create a Catalis Account or login to your existing account.

A screenshot of the Catalis RM of Edenwold Public Portal account creation form. The form has a white background with a blue header that says "CATALIS" and "RM of Edenwold Public Portal". Below the header are three input fields: "First Name*", "Last Name*", and "Email*". At the bottom of the form is a blue button labeled "Create Account". Below the button is a link that says "Already have an account? Log In".

Once your account has been verified via email you may select the application process that applies to you. Below are some common projects along with required applications for each type of project. Please do not start an application until you have all the required information ready and available.

Adding Properties

The first step of most applications is to add the relevant property information using the Property Connector.

The Business License & OCP/Zoning Bylaw Text Amendment Applications do not include the property connector.

Property Connector

Properties Add

Contacts Add

Use the Search Bar to Search for the property the application pertains to.

For Urban & Country Residential Properties:

- Type in your Civic Address as you normally would
e.g. 2 Coral Place
- The rest of the fields will autopopulate.
- Any empty fields can be left blank.

For Rural Properties:

- Type in the Legal Land Location using the following format:
NW-1-19-18-2
- Parcels and LSD within a Quarter Section will also show up
- If a LSD does not show up try the following format instead:
LSD-5-25-17-18-2
- Fill in the address box with either the civic address or legal land location.
- Any other empty fields may be left blank.

Search Bar Not Working?

- Ensure Quarter Sections are followed by a dash (e.g. NW-)
- Some properties may be missing from the property connector or are not easily searchable. If this is the case:
 1. Enter the legal land location into the long legal description box
 2. Enter the civic address or legal land location into the address box
 3. If filling out a Development Permit application, select the Zoning District for the property in the Zone dropdown box (if you are unsure of your property's Zoning District contact a Development Officer.
 4. All other boxes can be left blank

Adding Contacts

Next you'll need to add all relevant contacts for the project this includes the person applying "the applicant", as well as any contractors and the owner of the the property. The Business License & OCP/Zoning Bylaw Text Amendment Applications do not include the property connector.

The screenshot shows a web interface with three main sections: "Property Connector" with a "Complete Step" button, "Properties" with an "Add" button, and "Contacts" with an "Add" button.

In most applications, you can enter multiple contractors as well as multiple property owners but only one applicant.

Please ensure you enter the contact of the person(s) you are applying on behalf of if you are applying on the behalf of someone else.

The search bar has been disabled for privacy reasons and is not functional.

Enter both the contact's name and the company name (if applicable).

Ensure the address you enter is your mailing address and not your civic address if you receive your mail at a PO Box.

Select the contact type. You can check more than one box if the contact falls under more than one category!

When complete click the "Complete Step" button at the top of the page.

Development Details

5. In the box provided give a detailed description of your proposed development / project. If constructing a building indicate what the building will be used for. If you are submitting a Discretionary Use Application you will be asked to provide additional details (see p. 8)

Payment Contact

6. Indicate which contact attached to the application shall be responsible for payment.

Declaration

7. Read the declaration and type your name to confirm that you have read and understand the declaration. This will act as your signature.

Document Upload

8. Upload any relevant documents. This should always include a site plan, and may include other certifications, drainage or other engineered plans, a letter of intent, a letter of authorization etc. Click in the box at the bottom to upload files from your computer or device.

If you are applying for a project that also involves a Building Permit, please attach all building plans (with the exception of a site plan) to the Building Permit application and not the Development Permit application.

9. When the entire form is complete click the “Complete Step” button at the top of the page, and provide your signature. Your application has now been submitted for review.

Extra Steps for Discretionary Use Applications

If you are applying for a discretionary use you will need to provide additional information, including potential impacts caused by the development, any history of convictions, and any additional intended activities you intend to undertake

Many developments will not have impacts in all categories. Please indicate if the development will have no impact. Below is an example of what an application for a residential daycare may look like. This application only has minor impacts on traffic and noise. An application for a gravel pit or apartment will have vastly different impacts.

Supplementary Development Permit Information

Provide a summary statement to describe the potential impacts of the proposed development in each category. If no impacts are anticipated, please indicate that in the section:

A screenshot of a web form titled 'Supplementary Development Permit Information'. The form contains several text input fields, each with a rich text editor toolbar above it. The first field contains the text 'approx. 5 additional vehicles during pick-up/drop-off hours'. The other fields are empty and labeled 'None'. The form is organized into two columns and five rows of input areas.

Minor Variance Application

If you indicated a minor variance was required with your application you will need to provide additional information.

Please note: Minor Variance approvals can only up reduce a setback by up to 10%

1. Indicate what type of variance you are requesting.
 - From a building to a property lot line
 - From a building to another building
2. If reducing the setback from the property line, you will then be asked to indicate which setbacks you would like to be reduced. You may select multiple options.
3. Provide the distance you would like the minimum setback reduced to (maximum 10%).
4. Provide a detailed description. Include the setback you are reducing, the distance you are reducing it to and how you calculated your 10% variation distance.
5. Proceed with your application as normal. You will be charged an additional minor variance fee in addition to the regular permit fee.

Payment

After you submit your application you'll be redirected to the payment page.

Fees for development permits are automatically calculated. You may pay at the time of application or upon issuance of the permit.

If you are simultaneously submitting a building permit application it is recommended that you wait to pay, as all fees can then be invoiced at once.

You will be sent an invoice when your permit is ready and payment is due. If you are not ready to pay you may close the webpage and return to this step at any time.

When you are ready to pay:

1. Select Payment Method Using the Dropdown
 - If paying by mail, online or by electronic bill payment select Mail in payment.
 - If paying at the RM office select Pay in person.
2. Click "Confirm Method" to confirm your intended payment method.
3. If paying in person, pick up your permit at the RM Office.
If paying another way, wait to receive an invoice (if you have not already) and then send payment. Include the invoice # with the payment.

Before you can pay, fees must first be confirmed by a Planner. You may request a fee review at any time. You will be sent an invoice once fees have been confirmed.

When you are ready to pay:

1. Select Payment Method Using the Dropdown

- If paying by mail, online or by electronic bill payment select Mail in payment.
- If paying at the RM office select Pay in person.

2. Click "Confirm Method" to confirm your intended payment method.

3. If paying in person you may pay at the RM Office at anytime. If paying another way, wait to receive an invoice (if you have not already) and then send payment. Include the invoice # with the payment.

A full list of payment methods can be found on our website here: Payment Methods

Advertising Payment

All rezoning applications require public notification, and thus have associated advertising fees. You will be responsible for the costs of advertising your application.

You may request a fee review at any time, however fees will not be confirmed until advertisements have been placed in the Quad Town Forum and the number of public notice letters required has been calculated.

You will be sent an invoice once fees have been reviewed and payment is due.

Once fees have been reviewed and you are ready to pay:

1. Select Payment Method Using the Dropdown

- If paying by mail, online or by electronic bill payment select Mail in payment.
- If paying at the RM office select Pay in person.

2. Click “Confirm Method” to confirm your intended payment method.

3. If paying in person, pick up your permit at the RM Office.

If paying another way, wait to receive a invoice (if you have not already) and then send payment. Include the invoice # with the payment.

OCP / Zoning Bylaw Text Amendment

Text amendments modify the text of a bylaw to help accommodate new development. An example of a text amendment is the addition of a new use to a section of the Zoning Bylaw. It is recommend that you speak to a Planner prior to submitting a text amendment application.
